The

	consideration for this separate initial Contract preceding the main Contract is that the Company is not agreeable to issue the IFB to the Tenderer and to consider the Tender to be made except on the condition that the Tender shall be kept open for 120 days after the last date fixed for the receipt of the Tender and the Tenderer desires to make a Tender on this condition and after entering into this separate initial Contract with the Company. The Company promises to consider the Tender on this condition and the tenderer agrees to keep the Tender open for the required period. These reciprocal promises form the consideration for this separate initial Contract between the parties.	consideration for this separate initial Contract preceding the main Contract is that the Company is not agreeable to issue the IFB to the Tenderer and to consider the Tender to be made except on the condition that the Tender shall be kept open for 120 days after the opening of bids and the Tenderer desires to make a Tender on this condition and after entering into this separate initial Contract with the Company.
